WALNUT YOUTH ADVISORY COMMISSION

AGENDA DATE: DECEMBER 12, 2022

TO: Youth Advisory Commission

VIA: Mary Rooney, ACM – Community Services /Public Works
Jamie Bumia, Community Services Superintendent

FROM: Justine Carrasco, Recreation Coordinator

SUBJECT: Goals and Projects for 2022 – 2023

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the Youth Advisory Commission develop a list of goals and two projects for the upcoming school year on top of volunteering for Community Special Events and the Walnut Family Festival.

BACKGROUND:

Over the past few years, the Youth Advisory Commission has planned such projects as:

1. Anti-Bullying Day
2. STEM School Club Awareness Day
3. Tech 101
4. Volunteering for Community Special Events and Walnut Family Festival
5. The Great Kindness Week Challenge
6. Mental Health Awareness

ANALYSIS:

It will be the responsibility of this Commission to develop projects that they are willing to commit time and effort in order to achieve the Commission's goals with the constraints of social distancing during the COVID-19 pandemic. Commissioners will be briefed by Staff on Commissioner roles and expectations over the course of the year.

The Commission needs to finalize what the next steps are for the YES program as well as an additional project to include all youth in the community. This includes dates and times if you would like to come into the teen center to work on your projects. Staff will guide the discussion of goals and projects and act in an advisory capacity. Projects can be designed to address specific needs of youth in the community, address teen issues at Walnut High School or Suzanne Middle School, and/or contribute the community via City programs/events. Please keep in mind that the Commission does not have a budget for such projects, however incidental supplies for posters and other promotional material will be provided by the City

Please mark your calendars for the upcoming mandatory City Special Event Assistance:

- Saturday, December 10 from 4:30pm-9:30pm: Winter Jam

RELATION TO MISSION STATEMENT:

Our mission is to exceed expectations of the people of Walnut. We collaborate with the community to enhance our civic pride.
